

Scenic Rim Planning Scheme 2020

Dwelling Houses and Secondary Dwellings - June 2023

What is a Dwelling house?

Under the Scenic Rim Planning Scheme 2020, a Dwelling house is defined as:

A residential use of premises involving -

- a. 1 dwelling and any domestic outbuildings associated with the dwelling; or
- b. 2 dwellings, 1 of which is a secondary dwelling, and any domestic outbuildings associated with either dwelling.

What is a secondary dwelling?

A secondary dwelling is part of the Dwelling house definition and is described in Schedule 1.2

Administrative Definitions as:

A dwelling on a lot that is used in conjunction with, but subordinate to, another dwelling on the lot, whether or not the dwelling is:

- a. attached to the other dwelling; or
- b. occupied by individuals who are related to, or associated with, the household of the other dwelling.

In general terms, a secondary dwelling is not a duplex or Dual occupancy. It is more like a granny flat. For further information on duplexes or Dual occupancy, refer to the Dual occupancy fact sheet (link provided overleaf).

What level of assessment is required for a Dwelling house or secondary dwelling?

In some cases, a Dwelling house or secondary dwelling (and associated structures such as carports and sheds) is Accepted subject to requirements under the planning scheme. Planning approval is not required, provided that all acceptable outcomes under the relevant codes are met. Zoning, lot size and access to infrastructure influence the category of assessment for a Dwelling house or secondary dwelling.

For example, provided that all acceptable outcomes are met, Dwelling houses and secondary dwellings are Accepted subject to requirements where located in:

- Emerging Community Zone - If obtaining access from a constructed road;
- Limited Development Zone – Historical Subdivision Precinct – if obtaining access from a constructed road and the lot is a minimum of 2ha; or where located in Harrisville and obtaining access from a constructed road and the lot is a minimum of 4000m<sup>2</sup>;
- Low Density Residential Zone (where no precinct applies);
- Low Density Residential Zone – Mountain Residential Precinct;
- Low-medium Density Residential Zone;
- Minor Tourism Zone;
- Rural Residential Zone (where no precinct applies);
- Rural Residential Zone – Rural Residential A Precinct;

- Rural Zone (where no precinct applies) - If obtaining access from a constructed road;
- Rural Zone – Rural Escarpment Protection Precinct - If obtaining access from a constructed road;
- Rural Zone – Tamborine Mountain Rural Precinct - If obtaining access from a constructed road;
- Township Zone (where no precinct applies); and
- Township Zone – Township Residential Precinct.

For detailed information on the category of assessment for a Dwelling house or secondary dwelling in each zone, please refer to Section 5.5 Categories of Development and Assessment - Material Change of Use.

What happens if I do not meet the Acceptable outcomes of the Dwelling House Code?

If the proposed Dwelling house (including secondary dwelling) does not meet the relevant acceptable outcomes of the Dwelling House Code, planning approval (a Code assessable application) is required from Council for assessment only against those matters that the proposed Dwelling house (including secondary dwelling) did not comply with.

What if an Overlay applies to my property?

An Overlay in the planning scheme may also influence whether planning approval is required for a Dwelling house (including secondary dwelling). For example, an Overlay may increase the category of assessment from Accepted development to Code assessable development.

The best way to check whether a property is affected by an Overlay is to view the planning scheme Overlay mapping online at eplan and mapping or talk to one of our planners. If your property is affected by an Overlay, please refer to Section 5.10 Categories of Development and Assessment - Overlays which will help determine whether the Overlay means planning approval is required.

Building Approval

Planning approval should not be confused with building approval. The construction of a dwelling (Class 1a building) requires a Development Permit for Building Works issued by a Building Certifier under the Building Act 1975.
